Cranberry Manor - +130 years of tradition and hospitality

Amenities

All rooms are beautifully appointed with coordinating comforters and fabrics, comfortable seating, private bathrooms with separate tub and shower, gas fireplaces, televisions with DVD players and DirecTV and air conditioner (seasonal). Common rooms include library with TV, Blu-ray/DVD player, DirecTV, and free Wireless Internet Access. Comfortable reading area and wall decor which will transport you back in time. The dining area features changeable seating arrangements for intimacy or groups, a butler's pantry with fully equipped kitchenette, and pool table. Relax on one of our many porches in rockers, wicker chairs, or porch swing and enjoy the mountain air and breezes. In the morning enjoy a leisurely breakfast served in the formal dining room complete with china, crystal, linens, fresh flowers and candlelight. Your hosts will delight you with seasonal fruit dishes, and fresh baked goods with the addition of scrumptious entrees such as Upside Down Pancakes, Stuffed French Toast, Egg Casseroles and much more. During your stay here at Cranberry Manor we invite you to make yourself at home. Whether a deep soak in a bubble bath or a quiet book by a cozy fire, our guest rooms have ample supply of luxury and relaxation. If the great outdoors is your pleasure then our wraparound porches are the place to view our abundant wildlife. We have seen 33 different species of birds throughout the seasons. You might be lucky enough to catch a glimpse of the deer that come to munch on the crabapples fallen from the tree in the yard.

Inn-formation

The original house was built in 1880 to replace a log cabin on the Sebring property. Ownership passed to the Brysons and then to the Beseckers in 1955. Charles and Elsie Besecker, with their 6 children maintained a tradition of hospitality for some 35 years. The manor was purchased in 1997 and remodeled to its present state between 1998 and 2001. Much of the house was dated by artifacts found during extensive renovations, many of these articles are on display in the library. The third floor was added about 1910. A major renovation was accomplished about these articles are on display in the library. The third floor was added about 1910. A major renovation was accomplished about 1935 with the addition to the dining room and kitchen. The Inn is still surrounded by the children of Charles and Elsie and the name as well as the tradition goes on. The Inn is situated on the edge of the Tannersville Cranberry Bog which is home to black bear, coyotes, bobcat, and the ever hungry Pennsylvania white tail deer.

Cranberry Manor, an elegant mix of old and new, stands proud and ready for your pleasure and enjoyment.
